

A. Brownfields, the urban landscape and local development

Tues 5th July 13.30-15.10

1. Cortez A

UNESP - SP (Brazil)

Local Development and the restoration of the landscape in brownfields: the landfills sanitary in Brazil

2. Ortigoza S

Unesp/sp /brasil

Brownfields in medium cities in the countryside of Sao Paulo State - Brazil: possibilities of the local development from the (re) development of urban areas.

3. Lombardo M and Vasques A

UNESP/Sao Paulo/Brasil

The process of brownfields formation and redevelopment in Sao Paulo - Brazil

4. Pitton S

Unesp/sp/brasil

Local development: valuation of the services of health in Rio Claro/Sao Paulo/Brazil

B. The nature of local development in peripheral areas

Tues 4th July 15.40 – 17.20

1. Sofer M

Bar-Ilan University, Israel

Local development and the Fijian periphery: The case of Kadavu Island

2. Baoski J

Polish Geographical Society

Relations between core and peripheries in the Polish conceptions of development

3. Campolina Diniz C

Universidade Federal De Minas Gerais

The regional policy for the Brazilian Northeast region and the recent local development experiences

4. Young Martin

Reconceptualising tourism destination development in peripheral areas

C. Local responses to local and global challenges

Wed 5th July 8.20-10.00

1. Peters Kristine

Don't know, don't do: local business associations and their influence on the environmental performance of small business

2. Ab. Ghaffar Fauza

Globalisation and Regional Transformation: rethinking Regional Policy in Malaysia

3. Carroll Michael

Social Capital and Cluster-based Economic Development

D. On development plans and local development

Wed 5th July 10.30 – 12.10

1. Makki M

Saudi Geographical Society

Towards a balanced development in Medina region, Saudi Arabia

2. Churski P

Structural funds of the European Union in Poland – experiences of the first period of membership.

3. Teresa C, Zbyszko C, Chojnicki Z and Czyz T

Adam Mickiewicz University Poznan

Human capital in a knowledge-based economy in Poland